Non - US citizen Auto Insurance Program - As a newly arrived Foreign National, Expat, Diplomat, Military person, Scholar, or other Non - US citizen here in the U.S., you most likely do not have a U.S. driving record. As such, most insurance companies consider you to be a new driver, having no record upon which to base their premium. This translates to significantly higher rates and surcharges for you and/or your family - as opposed to a U.S. citizen with a similar background. Our program does not - Our preferred carrier treats and rates you based on the experience you have from your home country.
